

FSU wins four in softball

The Seminoles women's softball team won four straight games Friday and Saturday. Against Lake City Community College on Friday, FSU took a 10-8 decision. Colleen Buckley homered for FSU to lead its 10-hit attack. Robin Willy got the win.

Also on Friday, the Seminoles defeated the Florida A&M women, 15-3, behind the pitching of Cheryl Cordis. Bonny Craig went four for five at the plate for FSU, while Debbie Willis homered and Diane Lawrence banged a triple.

The Seminoles continued its productive hitting on Saturday, when it won by 15-0 and 11-1, respectively, over Central Community College and FAMU.

Against Central, FSU collected 14 hits to back winning pitcher Willy's three-hitter.

In the FAMU game, Gayle Lee had a four-for-six day at the plate, Debbie Billington slugged a homer, and Cordis was the winning pitcher, allowing just four hits.
