

FSU women lose two in softball

Special to The Democrat

TAMPA — Florida State's women's softball team was shut out twice Saturday in the South Florida Invitational, finishing third in the event.

In the morning, FSU lost to Flagler 5-0 despite getting ten hits. Dianne Lawrence and Trish Hardy both went 2-3 for the losers.

The loss threw FSU into the losers' bracket, where the Seminoles lost to Florida Tech 4-0. Hardy went 2-3 in that one.

Hardy (.583), Craig (.462), Gayle Lee (.455) and Robin Willy (.417) were the leading FSU batters in the tournament. FSU hosts the University of Florida at 3 p.m. Monday in a doubleheader. FSU is 17-4 and has beaten Florida four times out of four.
