

FSU in softball final

Special to The Democrat

ORLANDO — Florida State's softball won two games Friday to advance to Saturday's final in the state AIAW softball tournament.

FSU, coming off an 11-0 win over Stetson Thursday, beat South Florida 3-2 and then topped Florida Tech 10-9.

In the opener, Cathy Norton and Mary Schuehler belted two hits each.

Against Florida Tech, the Seminoles blew a six-run lead and needed a game-winning hit by Vicki Wilson in the bottom of the seventh to take the victory. Gayle Lee had three hits and Dianne Lawrence two, while Robin Willy pitched both victories.

FSU plays today at 12:30 against the winner of the South Florida-Florida Tech game.
