

FSU takes state title

Special to The Democrat

ORLANDO — Florida State won the Florida Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (FAIAW) softball championship Saturday, beating Florida Tech 7-4.

Florida State, now 36-6 for the season, scored once in the sixth on a triple by Robin Willy and a sacrifice fly by Cathy Norton to gain a 5-4 lead, then got two more in the seventh on hits by Gayle Lee, Vickie Warburton and Dianne Lawrence and a sacrifice fly by Debbie Billington.

Norton earlier homered for the winners. Willy was the winning pitcher.

By winning the state title, FSU moves on to the regionals, set for Tallahassee May 4-6. On April 29, FSU will host a doubleheader with Auburn.
