

FSU women still alive in tourney

TAMPA — The Florida State women's softball team defeated Stetson 9-0 and Florida International 9-2 before losing 5-1 to Florida Friday in the first round of the USF Invitational.

The double elimination tournament continues today as Florida State, 21-3, faces South Florida at 11 a.m.

Carol O'Donski had two hits, including a home run, and Toni Robinette and Kathy Gooding added two hits for FSU in the opener. O'Donski belted another home run in the second contest, and Robinette went two-for-three. Natalie Drouin had two hits in the loss to UF.