

From the Tallahassee Democrat

March 13, 1982

Page 10, other edition

FSU women win; streak ends

Florida State, the defending national champs, won easy 8-1, 15-0 victories over Ole Miss and Valencia Community College before seeing its 28-game winning streak end with a 4-2 loss to Florida in the Lady Seminole Softball Invitational.

Although the loss to the Lady Gators ended the streak, FSU advanced to the championship round, along with Florida, Lake City Community and East Carolina. Today's semifinals begin this morning at 10:30 with Florida taking on East Carolina and Florida State playing Lake City at noon. The consolation game starts at 2 p.m. and the championship final is at 3:30.