

Seminole women win twice

RALEIGH, N.C. — Florida State's softball team defeated East Carolina 5-0 and the University of North Carolina 11-0 in the North Carolina State Invitational Friday.

Toney Donaldson had two hits and drove in two runs in the first game for the Lady Seminoles, then belted three hits and three RBIs in the second contest. Natalie Drouin tagged three hits against North Carolina.

Florida State, 35-8, plays North Carolina State in the finals of the winner's bracket today.
