

FSU women win twice

RALEIGH, N.C. — The Florida State softball team advanced to the semifinal game of the North Carolina State Invitational Friday by beating North Carolina-Charlotte 12-0 in five innings and then beating N.C. State 7-1.

In the first game Darby Cottle's home run and triple produced five rbi's.

In the second game Cottle, Carla Long, Teresa Collins and Leann Harrell each got two hits. Collins and Harrell also got two rbi's each.

Susan Painter pitched both games.

Florida State, the two-time defending tournament champion, will play Cleveland State this morning. The final game will be in the afternoon.

The Lady Seminoles, whose record is 33-5, will play their last home game Monday at Seminole Field. Jacksonville University is the opponent for the doubleheader, which starts at 3:30 p.m.
