

FSU women rip North Carolina

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. — Tina Kyler and Shelley Berube kept up their torrid pace and kept Florida State's softball team on its tear by shutting out North Carolina 1-0 and 5-0 on Monday.

Kyler tossed her sixth no-hitter in the opener and Berube threw a one-hitter in the second game. Kyler had 18 strikeouts.

FSU won the first game when Teresa Collins tripled to open the seventh inning. Cathy Gooding singled her in for the lone run.

Greta Bahn led the offensive attack in the nightcap with two hits and 3 RBI. Collins and Sunnie O'Neal had the other 2 RBI.

Florida State, which last lost to Western Illinois on March 22, has won nine games in a row. Since beginning the year 3-3-2, FSU has come on to win 26 of its last 27 games for a 29-4-2 mark.

The Lady Seminoles will travel to Columbus, Miss., on Saturday to play in the MUW Invitational on the campus of Mississippi University for Women.
