

FSU women second in tourney

COLUMBUS, Miss. — Florida State's softball team opened with a loss, but rebounded with two wins to finish second in the Mississippi University for Women Invitational on Saturday.

Nicholls State got the best of the Lady Seminoles, winning 2-1 in FSU's opener. But FSU had a relatively easy time in the second game by shutting out Southern Mississippi 3-0 behind Shelley Berube's one-hitter.

Amy Snider flied out to right field to score Cathy Gooding in the ninth inning to give FSU a 2-1 victory over Mississippi University for Women.

FSU, 31-5-2, will travel to Lynchburg, Va. to play in the Lady Flame Invitational this weekend.
