TALLAHASSEE, FL--Florida State (42-14), playing its last regular season home game, said farewell to its four seniors with a Mercy Rule shortened 8-0 victory over Florida A&M (34-29) Tuesday at Lady Seminole Field. The game was a make-up of last Tuesday's rainout.

The Seminoles scored in every inning but the second before senior Lisa Davidson's no-out, RBI single ended the game in the bottom of the sixth. Florida State used a 13 hit attack to beat FAMU for a four game sweep of the season series.

Shamalene Wilson led the onslaught with a 3 for 3 effort, including a pair of doubles, and scored twice. Jill Klundt started for the Rattlerettes and lasted three innings before giving way to Psauntia Andrews. Klundt was tagged for four runs on eight hits to lower her record to 14-15.

A pair of Florida State seniors shared the pitching duties. Rebecca Aase (15-6) went the first three innings giving up one hit and striking out three. Marla Looper went the remaining three frames to pick up her fourth save. Looper struck out six of the 11 batters she faced and was touched for a pair of singles.

Seniors Jen Olow, Aase, Davidson and Looper were making their last regular season appearances before the home town folks. Florida State hosts this weekend's Atlantic Coast Conference championship tournament. The Seminoles begin the quest for their third straight ACC title against Georgia Tech Friday at 4:00.
