FSU COLLECTS TWO MORE VICTORIES

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. -- Florida State University continued its domination of the Tar Heel Invitational softball tournament as they collected two more victories. Campbell lost two games, and East Carolina split its two contests during the second day of the tournament at Finley Field today.

East Carolina (34-13) beat Campbell, 8-1, in the first game of the day. The Lady Pirates scored six runs in the fourth inning and tallied a total of 12 hits for the game.

In the second game, Florida State (43-11) defeated East Carolina, 10-2. Seminole centerfielder Shamalene Wilson hit a homerun and pitcher Renee Espinoza allowed only three hits in the winning effort.

Florida State pitcher Kristy Feuntes struck out 11 batters in the third game, beating Campbell, 7-1. Thirdbaseman Cindy Lawton got three hits, including a double.

On Sunday, East Carolina, Florida State and North Carolina play a three-game round robin series. Games start at 11:00 a.m.
