TAR HEEL INVITATIONAL SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT

FLORIDA STATE CROWNED CHAMPIONS OF TOURNAMENT

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. -- The Seminoles of Florida State were crowned the champions of the 1995 Tar Heel Invitational Softball Tournament today at Finley Field. The East Carolina Pirates were runners-up. Florida State finished the three-day tournament with a perfect 6-0 record including two victories during today's action. East Carolina lost two games, and host North Carolina split its two contests.

Florida State (45-11) beat ECU, 4-3, in the first game of the day. The Lady Pirates were leading 3-2 until the Seminoles scored one run in the bottom of the seventh. FSU went on to win in nine innings.

In the second game, FSU defeated North Carolina, 2-1. Seminole pitcher Niki Zenger recorded the victory and boosted her record to 11-0.

North Carolina ended the tournament with a victory over East Carolina, 2-1. First baseman Lorin Slade had two hits and scored one run. Angie Gill collected the win for the Tar Heels.
