For Immediate Release: April 12, 1995

FLORIDA STATE TAKES ANOTHER FROM FAMU

TALLAHASSEE- The 13th-ranked Florida State Lady Seminoles defeated cross-town rival Florida A&M, 6-0, marking FSU's fourth victory over the Rattlerettes this season. With the victory, FSU improves to 46-11 while FAMU falls to 15-28 on the year.

Sophomore Michelle Fuentes improved her record to 15-4 as she allowed just two hits and struck out nine batters, including four of the first five at the plate. The 'Noles had solid hitting from several players as Myssi Calkins, who led off tonight in place of the injured Shamalene Wilson, went two-for-four at the plate and drove in a run. Freshman Kristy Hull continued her fine hitting, going two-for-three and driving in two runs. Sophomore Wendy Braye also contributed to the Tribe's eight hits, going two-for-two with two RBIs. Wilson, who suffered a leg injury playing at the North Carolina Tournament last weekend, should be out for only a week.

It was a festive evening from the beginning with FSU football players competing in a homerun derby prior to the game. Coach Dr. JoAnne Graf was also recognized as she had notched her 800th career victory last Friday in Chapel Hill, N.C. Graf, who has led Florida State to five College World Series in the past eight years, ranks second all-time for victories (805-195-4) among Division I softball coaches. In 11 years of fast pitch competition, Graf has directed the Lady 'Noles to nine NCAA regional appearances and will guide the squad to its 10th as FSU has already clinched an NCAA regional berth this season.

Florida State will travel to Pensacola for a doubleheader with West Florida on Saturday, April 15, beginning at 1 p.m.
