FLORIDA STATE TAKES TWO FROM LADY EAGLES IN SOFTBALL OPENER

STATESBORO, Ga. - Senior pitcher Kristy Fuentes pitched a one-hitter in the season opener for Florida State and picked up a save in game two as the Lady Seminoles swept a doubleheader, 8-0 and 5-3, from Georgia Southern Sunday afternoon at Lady Eagle Field.

The Lady Seminoles, ranked seventeenth in the nation, pounded out 12 hits in game one, but five GSU errors led to four unearned runs. Fuentes allowed her lone hit in the first inning to Lady Eagle catcher McCaine Lowder. FSU's returning second-team All-America selection Myssi Calkins went two for four with four stolen bases and third baseman Tami Post went four for four with three RBI to lead the Lady Seminoles.

In game two, Florida State jumped out to a quick 3-0 lead. The Lady Eagles got on the board in the fourth inning as pitcher Jennifer Miller ripped a triple that knocked in shortstop Beth Dance. In the sixth, with FSU leading 4-1, Dance singled knocking in pinch runner Kristen Steigenhofer, and Miller again had a clutch hit with a single of her own to knock in Dance. With the score 4-3, Fuentes came in to stop the rally and close the game.

Georgia Southern (0-2) returns to action Monday versus Florida A&M at Lady Eagle Field. The Lady Seminoles next action is Wednesday versus Florida A&M.
