

O-State wins diving

Associated Press

TEMPE — Carrie Irish of Ohio State won both diving events and five records were set Saturday during final day of the Women's National Swimming and Diving Championships.

The University of Miami held off defending champion Arizona State to win the team title.

Miss Irish won the one-meter diving competition with 434.70 points with Peggy Anderson of Wisconsin finishing second at 412.95. She captured the three-meter diving crown with 442.15 points with Laurie Brunet of Arizona finishing second at 428.95.

Janet Leopold of Arizona was injured in the one-meter event when she hit the diving board on her first dive. She was treated and released at a local hospital.

Miami won the team event with 383 points. Arizona State was second at 369, followed by UCLA 220, Virginia Commonwealth 184, Arizona 160, Indian River Community College, Fla., 152, Monmouth College 112, Florida 95, Rutgers 95 and Florida State 82.

Arizona State set a record in winning the 400-yard medley relay in 3:57.906. Second place UCLA and Miami also broke the old mark of 4:07.20.

Dawn Frady of Miami won the 200-yard freestyle in the record time of 1:53.992.

The 50-yard backstroke title went to Linda Stimpson of Southern California with a record 26.764.

Peggy Tosdal of ASU won the 50-yard butterfly in a record 25.636 second.

Arizona State won the 200-yard freestyle relay in a record clocking of 1:38.555. ASU held the old record of 1:41.54.

Lady Seminoles tenth in swim

Special to the Democrat

TEMPE, Ariz. — Florida State's women's swim team managed 10th place in the National Collegiate Swim Championships Saturday here, finishing well behind first-place Miami.

FSU's Susan Clark finished in the top 16 in five events to earn five All-America honors. She also was the top point-getter for the Lady Seminoles.

Miami scored 383 points, Arizona State 369, UCLA 220, Virginia Commonwealth 184, Arizona 160, Indian River 152, Monmouth 112, Washington 98, Rutgers 95, Florida 95, FSU 82.