

FSU swimmers smash records

Special to the Democrat

GAINESVILLE, Ga.—The FSU women's swim team set five meet records on its way to a first place finish in the Brenau College Swimming Relays Saturday.

The Seminoles scored 256 points to place ahead of Furman, Brenau, Appalachian State, Georgia and Auburn in that order.

The 200-yard freestyle relay team of Laura Barber, Susie Yates, Ritchie Dorrier and Jana Wilkins qualified for the AIAW Nationals with its record time.

Barber, Teri Winking and Sarah Shuster set a new mark in the 150 yard backstroke relay; Dorrier, Yates, Shuster, Nancy Pfaff and Lynn Million set a record in the crescendo relay; and Barber, Wilkins, Yates and Kim Krueger swam a record 200 medley relay.

Two FSU divers set a record with a combined total of 492.7 points.
