

FSU women second in swim

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Florida State women's swim team is in second place behind host Alabama after the first day of the Region III AIAW meet Thursday.

There are two days remaining in the competition.

The Crimson Tide has a commanding 403-285 point lead over FSU. Auburn is third with 196 points and Georgia fourth at 130. Four other teams complete the field.

Lisa Nencioni was the only FSU swimmer to place first in an event. She won the 500-yard freestyle in a time of 5:01.1, and the 50-yard breaststroke with a 32.2 clocking.

Teammate Jeanne Dowdle finished third in that event, two-tenths of a second behind Nencioni.

Nencioni and Dowdle were also members of the relay team that finished third in the 200-yard medley. Their teammates were Kim Averill and Kathi Miller.

Nencioni added a third place finish in the 200-yard individual, while Miller took second place.

A relay team including Miller, Jackie Bajus, Paula Hartzer and Nancy Pfaff finished second in the 800-yard freestyle.

Lady Seminoles are second in swim meet

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Florida State's Lady Seminole swim team finished second to the University of Alabama here Friday with a score of 557 in the AIAW Region 3 Swimming and Diving championships.

Lisa Nencioni won first place in the 100 breaststroke with a time of 1:08.3, and the Lady Seminole 400-yard medley relay team took first place with a time of 4:03.9.

Alabama won the championship meet with a score of 792.
