

The University of South Florida earned a tie for fourth after first day action yesterday in the 13th annual Women's Southern Collegiate Tennis Tournament at Columbus, Miss.

The lady Brahman netters, riding some strong doubles and an outstanding singles performance by Robin Edenbaun; currently have seven points, the same as Lamar and Florida State.

Rollins and Trinity, Tex., are tied for the lead in the 15-team tournament with 14 points and the host Mississippi State College for women is third with nine points.

MUW Holds Tennis Play

COLUMBUS, Miss. (AP)—Third-seeded Rayni Fox of Rollins College took individual honors in the 13th annual Southern Collegiate Women's Tennis Tournament over the weekend and her school won the team title.

Miss Fox upset second-seeded Joanne Russell of Trinity University of Texas 4-6, 6-1, 6-0.

Rollins had 26 points for the team win, followed by Trinity with 23, Lamar University of Texas with 13, Mississippi University for Women with nine and the University of Tennessee with eight.

Winners in the doubles competition were the second-seeded team of Miss Russell and Donna Stocketon of Trinity over top-seeded Linda Wert and Beverly Buckley of Rollins, 6-4, 6-4.