

FSU's Women Netters Alive

Special to the Democrat

STAUTON, Va. — Florida State's womens tennis team had two players remaining in the singles and two in the doubles as the competition in the Middle Atlantic Tournament entered its third round today.

Janet Haworth, who defeated her second round opponent 6-4, 6-1, and Rochelle Smith, who knocked off two opponents yesterday, faced singles matches today.

In the doubles, Renee Gregorio and Hayworth whipped their opponent 7-6, 6-0 yesterday and advanced another round.

FSU Women Net Second

Special to the Democrat

STAUTON, Va. — Florida State's womens tennis team finished second here Friday when the two Seminole singles players and one doubles team lost quarterfinal matches in the Mid-Atlantic Tournament.

FSU's Janet Haworth, the tourney's number one seed, was defeated by North Carolina's Nina Cloaninger 6-1, 4-6, 6-4.

Rochelle Smith was defeated by Penn State's Carol Backenstose 6-3, 7-5.

The Seminole doubles team of Haworth and Renee Gregorio was defeated by Beth Hamilton and Jane Preyer 6-4, 7-5.