

Brahmans Beat FSU

The University of South Florida's women's tennis team got victories in all three doubles matches Sunday and went on to defeat the Florida State University women, 6-3.

With the score tied 3-3, USF got doubles victories when Judy Hanrahan and Ann Davis beat Sherry Shores and Mary Beck, 6-2, 6-4; when Lee Myers and Julia Potterton defeated Debbie Deluccia and Sharon Ondrula 6-1, 6-1; and when Diane Gandolfo and Terri Cook swept past Beth Hinson and Leslee Abisch 6-2, 4-6, 7-5.

In the singles, Hanrahan beat Shores 6-3, 6-3 in the No. 1 position, while Davis lost to Beck by default.

Also, Abisch beat Myers 6-4, 6-1, Potterton beat Deluccia 7-5, 6-3, Gandolfo beat Ondrula 7-6, 6-4, and Hinson beat Cook, 6-3, 6-1.

South Florida had lost on Saturday, 7-2, to Rollins College.

The Brahmans are now 12-5 on the season.

Ann Davis forfeited her singles match because of a sprained ankle, which she suffered at a practice last Friday.
