

FSU women netters in seventh

CORAL GABLES — Florida State's women's tennis team is in seventh place after Friday's opening rounds of the Catharine Sample Memorial tournament at the University of Miami.

South Carolina leads the 12-team tournament with 11 points. Florida State totaled five points in Friday's action.

Florida is in fourth place with seven points; Miami is fifth with six.

Singles

Laurie Mueller (FSU) had first round bye; def. Kristen McKeen (Texas) 3-6, 6-2, 6-3.

Penne Nieporte (FSU) lost to Vicki Ellis (Texas) 6-0, 6-2.

Lisa Ehrgott (FSU) lost to Martha Corbett (Florida) 6-2, 6-1.

DeeAnn Hansel (FSU) def. Kathy Allen (Rollins) 6-4, 2-6, 6-1; lost to Krista vanderWalt (Miami) 6-1, 6-1.

Cheryl Cordes (FSU) lost to Cindy Sampson (Texas) 6-2, 7-5.

Susan Mueller (FSU) def. Randi Storace (Rollins) 6-3, 6-4; lost to Retha Human (Miami) 6-1, 6-4.

Doubles

Cordes-Gege Boesch (FSU) d. Lisa Busko-Mary Dailey (USF) 7-5, 3-6, 6-2.

Nieporte-Hansel (FSU) lost to vanderWalt-Human (Miami) 6-3, 6-2.

FSU women netters take sixth

MIAMI - Florida State women's tennis team finished in sixth place Saturday in the Catharine Sample Invitational.

In singles action Susan Gibson (Miami) beat Lori Mueller 4-6, 7-6, 6-0 while Louise Allen-Felicia Raschiatore (Trinity) defeated Lady Seminoles' Cheryl Cordes-Gigi Boesch 6-3, 6-3 in doubles play.

FSU's Lisa Ehrgott-Kristin Getz of Florida State defeated Cherri Southerland-Carol Boston (LSU) 6-2, 6-3 before losing to Susan Gibson-Jamie Golber (Miami) 6-2, 6-0.

Florida State will next play Alabama at Tully Gym on Nov. 14.