FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Tallahassee, Fla. — It was a long trip from San Diego, Ca. to Tallahassee for the women's tennis team from U.S. International University, but Sunday's 8-1 victory over LSU in the championship match of the 22nd Annual Lady Seminole Invitational made it all worthwhile.

"It was a great tournament," said U.S. International head coach Dave Trebisky. "The girls played fantastic and we're ready to come back next year."

For Florida State, the tournament did not end on a happy note as the Lady Seminoles were blanked by South Florida, 8-0 in the match for third place.

"We obviously did not play well today," FSU head coach Anne Rizza said. "We played one good match this tournament (a 7-2 win over North Carolina) and could not do much against LSU or USF."

FSU, 6-4 on the season, has a week off before taking on Wichita State March 11 in Tallahassee.
