Linda Gates, a senior with a sonic boom-velocity serve, powered Stanford to a sweep of championships in the NCAA Division I Women's Tennis Tournament here Friday afternoon.

Gates, eighth-seeded, outlasted top-rated Gretchen Rush of Trinity in a tense first set 7-6 (7-5 tie-breaker) and then rolled to the singles crown with a 6-2 triumph in the second set.

Gates then teamed with Leigh Ann Eldredge to win the doubles title. The victims again were from Trinity, Rush and Lisa Sassano succumbing 6-4, 6-3. Gates and Eldredge were seeded third and Rush and Sassano second.
