SEMINOLES RISE ABOVE
DEMON DEACONS*(For Immediate Release)
April 12, 1992

WINSTON-SALEM -- After winning a big non-conference match versus South Carolina yesterday, the Wake Forest women's tennis team could have come out flat this morning against Florida State. However, Coach Lew Gerrard's squad came out ready for the Seminoles only to fall 5-4 after a hard-fought match under very warm conditions.

Knotted up at 3-3 going into doubles' play, the Deacons won behind the team of Liz Barker and Dana Evans to take the lead 4-3. The Seminoles, though fired back by taking the last two matches, including a three-set thriller won by Jenny Graf and Robin Cifaldi over Celine Menain and Elaine Smith 6-1, 4-6, 6-4.

The Deacons get a four-day rest before the ACC Tournament this weekend.
