

Boone Records Fall

RICHMOND, Ky. — Records were falling like raindrops in the third annual Becky Boone Relays, a women's track meet won by Michigan State here Saturday.

In all, 10 standards were broken with members of the Chicago State team surpassing four of the marks — Veronica Harris in the 100 and 220, Teela Schemadwai in the 440 and its 880 - yard medley relay team.

Michigan State won only one event, the 400-yard relay in record time of 50.7 seconds, but had enough depth to edge Illinois State for team honors, 63-55. Illinois took third. The only Kentuckian claiming a victory was Centre College's Elizabeth Johnson in the 400-meter hurdles.

Team standings — 1. Michigan State (MS) 63, Illinois State (IU) 55, Illinois (I) 51½, Tennessee State 40½, Chicago State (CS) 47, Florida (F) 43, Ohio State (OS) 38.

100-meter hurdles — Patty Mannies, Ball State 16.1; 100-yard dash — Veronica Harris (CS) 11.0 (set meet record of 10.9 in preliminaries); Mile run — Sue Mallory (OS) 5:11.8 (meet record); 220-yard dash — Harris (CS) 25.0 (meet record); 440-yard relay — Michigan State 50.7 (meet record); 440-yard dash — Teela Schemadwai (CS) 56.2 (meet record); 400-meter hurdles — Elizabeth Johnson, Centre 1:06.4; 880-yard medley relay — Chicago State 1:53.2 (meet record); 880-yard run — Judith Smith (TS) 2:19.5 (meet record); Two-mile run — Mallory (OS) 11:51.7; Mile relay — Tennessee State 4:01.8; Javelin — Annette Lurtbinger, Florida State 132-9½; shot put — Linda Angeloff (IS) 39-11 (meet record); High jump — Liz Sharp (I) 5-4; Long jump — Diane Kummer (I) 18-6½ (meet record); Discus — Celeste Wood (IS) 125-11 (meet record).