

Giampalmo grabs fifth in AAU 880

From Democrat staff and wire reports

NEW YORK — Florida State freshman Rose Giampalmo continued to make his mark on the national track scene, finishing fifth in the 880-yard run at the national AAU meet here Friday night.

Giampalmo, who earlier this year scored an easy win in the United States Track and Field Federation meet in Montgomery, Ala., ran a 2:15.1 Friday night.

Winning the race was Iowa State's Debbie Vetter in a time of 2:08.8, followed by Kathleen Weston of Los Angeles Naturites, Darlene Beckford of Liberty Athletic Club and Joetta Clark of Klub Keystone.
