UCLA captures volleyball title

California teams finished 1-2-3-4, as the National Women's Intercollegiate Volleyball Championship concluded Saturday evening at Miami-Dade Junior College South.

UCLA defeated California State-Long Beach 6-10, 15-11, 15-5 for the title and San Fernando Valley State beat the University of California at Santa Barbara 15-9, 15-11 for third place.

It was the second straight year Long Beach finished second. Last year's winner, Sul Ross of Houston, Tex., lost to UCLA in the quarter-finals.
