

FSU women gain state

Special to the Democrat

MIAMI—Florida State's women's volleyball team finished second here over the weekend in the state collegiate championship to earn a berth in the Region Three tournament in Tallahassee this weekend.

The Seminoles fell 15-5, 15-6 to Florida International. Both FSU and FIU will represent Florida against the top two teams from Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi. The two winners from this Thursday to Saturday tournament on Tully Gym will go to the national championship Dec. 9-11 in Princeton, N.J.
