

From the Tallahassee Democrat

December 10, 1975

Page 52

FSU women in nationals

Special to the Democrat

PRINCETON, N.J. — Florida State will be one of two Southeastern schools represented at the Seventh Annual Women's National Collegiate Volleyball Championships here which begin today and run through Dec. 13.

The 36-5 Lady Seminoles, the AIAW Southeastern runnersup will join region Champion Mississippi University for Woman and 22 schools from other parts of the nation for the national title chase being held at Princeton University.

From the Tallahassee Democrat

December 15, 1975

Page 17

FSU lady spikers lose

Special to the Democrat

Florida State's women's volleyball team lost five straight games in the National Tournament this past weekend, and ended their season with a 37-12 record.

After sweeping through Regionals to become one of 24 teams in the national playoffs, the Lady Seminoles lost to Maryland, California State at North Ridge, University of Illinois at Chicago Circle, Hawaii, and Nebraska.

UCLA claimed first place in the tournament, followed by Hawaii, Houston, and Long Beach.