

FSU ladies still alive

COLUMBUS, Miss. — Florida State's women's volleyball team lost its first match of the Mississippi University for Women Invitational tournament here Friday, but then won three straight matches to stay alive in the round-robin tourney.

LSU dropped the Lady Seminoles 15-2, 7-15, 16-14 in the opening round. FSU then took a 15-3, 15-9 win over Montivallo before topping North Alabama 15-8, 15-12. In the day's final game, Florida State belted MUW's B-team 15-7, 15-0.

Today, the Lady Seminoles will play Ole Miss and Barry College.
