

FSU women win three

Florida State's women's volleyball team won three straight matches to open the Lady Seminole Invitational Friday in Tully Gym.

FSU, along with five teams remaining from the 12-team field, will battle for the title in today's final round. Still in contention are Alabama, Florida International, Florida Tech, Flagler, and Mississippi University for Women.

The Lady Seminoles blew past Auburn in straight games to open the tourney, then upset MUW 17-15, 15-13. In the final game of the day, FSU knocked off North Carolina 15-13.
