MIAMI — Florida State's volleyball team earned a No. 2 seed position and advanced to the winners' bracket Friday after winning all four of its matches in the Miami-Dade South Invitational tournament.

In a four-team round-robin pool, FSU stopped Florida Southern 16-14, 15-10; South Florida 15-10, 15-7; and Miami-Dade South 11-15, 16-14, 17-15.

FSU then topped seventh-seeded South Florida 12-15, 15-9, 15-9.

Florida Tech is top-seeded in the tourney, which winds up today. Barbara Barnes and Velma Wright led the FSU attack Friday.
