

Lady Seminoles 2nd in volleyball

Special to The Democrat

MIAMI — The Florida Tech and Florida State volleyball teams ended up just as they were seeded Saturday when Florida Tech topped the Seminoles 15-9, 15-7 in the final of the Miami-Dade South Invitational.

FSU advanced to the final by beating the host team 7-15, 15-6, 15-12; losing to Florida Tech 16-14, 15-5; and coming back to beat Florida International 15-6, 16-14.

Nancy Johnson, the top Seminole setter, led FSU along with Velma Wright and Margie Wessel. Margaret Stephens was outstanding on defense.

FSU, now 10-4, plays host to a 14-team tournament this Friday and Saturday.
