

FSU wins 2 of 3 in volleyball

Florida State's Lady Seminoles won two of three matches in the University of Alabama Invitational volleyball tournament. The Lady Seminoles will go into a single elimination showdown today.

FSU beat South Carolina 15-10, 3-15 and 15-8 and then knocked off Mississippi University for Women 15-12 and 15-7.

University of Central Florida, the Division II defending national champs, then beat the Lady Seminoles 15-2, 7-15 and 15-8 to run their winning streak to 58 matches over a two year period.