

FSU women win four in tourney

Florida State's women's volleyball team swept through four opponents Friday in the first day of competition of the Mississippi University for Women invitational tournament.

The Lady Seminoles are now in the top four teams going into the second day of play, and will likely meet up with Ole Miss today.

In Friday's matches, FSU defeated in straight games Arkansas State, Southeast Louisiana, Nicholls State and the Mississippi University for Women.