

Lady Seminoles need a win today

Tuscaloosa, Ala. — The Lady Seminole volleyball team is one victory from making it into the final four of the southeast regionals after splitting two matches Thursday. Eight teams, playing in two 4-team brackets, are vying for the championship that will send one of them to the nationals.

After beating Georgia, Florida State lost to Alabama. Now the Lady Seminoles must beat Mississippi State to advance into the final round Saturday where four teams will battle it out in double-elimination play.

In the other bracket are the University of Miami, the Mississippi University for Women, Mississippi and Auburn.
