

FSU women's volleyball team wins

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The Florida State women's volleyball team moved two steps closer to a regional championship and an invitation to the national finals with victories over Mississippi State and Alabama.

The Lady Seminoles whipped Mississippi State 15-6, 15-11 and then came back and beat the Crimson Tide 15-13, 15-6 to move into a winners' bracket matchup with Miami 10 a.m. today in the double elimination tournament. With two victories FSU will gain the national finals.