

FSU spikers lose Metro finals

MEMPHIS - The Lady Seminole volleyball team made it all the way to the finals during the weekend before losing in the Metro Conference Tournament to St. Louis.

The FSU women had to play five matches in the tournament, although St. Louis only played three, and the strain showed as the Lady Seminoles lost in the title match 12-15, 15-7 and 6-15.

Three FSU spikers were rewarded by being named to the six-person All-Conference team. Shannon Lages, Marie Sanders and Margie Wessel were each awarded for their outstanding play in the tourney.
