

Seminole spikers take fourth

ORLANDO — The Florida State women's volleyball team finished in fourth place in the University of Central Florida Invitational.

After winning their opening matches against LSU (15-7, 15-4), the Lady Seminoles lost to a Miami, who won the tournament (10-15, 13-15). FSU then beat LSU again (15-13, 15-5), before losing to a strong Alabama squad (10-15, 7-15).

FSU, 16-8, will meet Lake City C.C. and South Alabama in a tri-match Tuesday.