

Seminole spikers finish third

MIAMI — The Florida State women's volleyball team finished third in the Miami Classic Saturday after beating Miami Dade South but losing to eventual champion Miami.

The Lady Seminoles won the first match of the day 15-7, 15-12 but were eliminated because they dropped the second one to Miami 15-6, 15-8. Two FSU players made the all-tournament team. Sophomore Alicia Cross and freshman Marie Sanders were awarded the tournament honors.
