FSU spikers win FSU tourney

Behind the strong play of Julie Brown and Karyn Palgut, the Florida State volleyball team swept past seven straight opponents and won the 12th annual Lady Seminole Invitational at Tully Gym Saturday.

In the final, the Lady Seminoles defeated Clemson 15-10, 15-5. In FSU's seven matches, FSU did not lose a single game. It was the first time since 1975 and only the fourth time ever that FSU has won its own tournament. Florida State is 18-5. Clemson is 23-7.

Clemson made the final by beating North Carolina 15-7, 2-15, 15-1 in the quarterfinals and Miami Dade South Community College 15-8, 15-8 in the semifinals. Florida State received a bye in the quarterfinal and beat Alabama 15-10, 15-10 in the semifinals.

Florida State will play Central Florida Tuesday night at 7:30 at Tully.
