

Seminoles win tourney

Florida State University defeated both the University of South Florida and University of North Carolina Saturday to win the 14th annual Lady Seminole Volleyball Invitational at Tully Gym.

FSU, now 15-2 on the season, rolled over both opponents in straight games to record its second invitational win of the season.

The Seminoles beat South Florida in the first match 15-6, 15-3, 15-9 and then came back to drop North Carolina 15-7, 15-5, 15-12. Florida State dominated the tournament, winning all six matches and all 15 games it played.
