

FSU secures volleyball title

LOUISVILLE — Florida State won its first Metro Conference volleyball title Saturday night.

The Lady Seminoles won the finals with a 13-15, 15-8, 15-9, 10-15, 15-4 victory over No. 2-seed South Carolina.

In the semifinals Saturday morning, FSU beat Cincy 13-15, 15-12, 15-12, 15-9.

The Lady Seminoles are now 31-5.

Three FSU players made the all-tournament team. They were Sally Summer, Marie Sanders and Karyn Palgut, who was the most valuable player in the tournament.
