

FSU volleyball team smashes Lamar

Florida State Women's Volleyball team upped its record to 2-0,

Saturday, defeating Lamar University handily in three straight games, 15-11 15-6 and 15-11.

Lisa Smith lead the victory with 11 kills on the night. Carol Forsten and Joan Morris added 17 kills, getting nine and eight respectively. FSU hit .350 overall in the match.

Lamar, falling to 2-8 on the year, was led by Ruby Randolph. The junior outside hitter had 10 kills for the match. The team hit for .260.

The Lady Seminoles travel to College Station, Texas for the Texas A & M Invitational next week. FSU will play a round robin tourney with host Texas A & M, Southern Illinois and LSU.