

FSU volleyball wins fourth

Special to the Democrat

The Florida State Lady Seminoles evened their season mark at 4-4 Tuesday night, defeating Central Florida 15-3, 15-2, 15-4.

Joan Morris led the way for FSU with 11 kills, while Karyn Palgut and Julie Todd followed with seven each. As a team, Florida State finished with a .468 percentage. The Lady Knights ended with a .277 mark.

"We made several adjustments in the lineup," Cecile Reynaud said. "The girls were where they needed to be, and it paid off."

Florida State travels to New Orleans next to take on Tulane and the University of New Orleans. Following those matches, they will travel to Hattiesburg, Miss. to take on Southern Mississippi in a Metro Conference battle.
