COLUMBIA, S.C. — Florida State's women's volleyball team completed a successful weekend road trip Sunday by beating North Carolina State and the University of Central Florida.

The Lady Seminoles took Central Florida 15-3, 15-9 and 15-8. They then disposed of N.C. State 15-7, 15-9 and 15-1. The wins gave FSU a 16-5 record and completed a 4-0 weekend swing through the Atlantic Coast Conference.

"We played very well," said Coach Cecile Reynaud. "North Carolina State is one of the top teams in the Atlantic Coast Conference. This is probably the best I've seen us play in a long time."

FSU's next match is Friday at 7:30 in Tully Gym against Metro Conference power Louisville. "I'm sure that one will be for the No. 1 seed in the conference," said Reynaud.
