FSU defeats Northwestern

CHICAGO, Ill. — Cecile Reynaud won her 300th game as a college coach as the Florida State women's volleyball team beat Northwestern 9-15, 16-14, 8-15, 15-9, 15-11 on Monday. Reynaud's victories all have come while coaching at FSU.

The Lady Seminoles, now 19-6, finished their road trip with three straight wins and will next face Louisiana State on Saturday at 2 p.m. in Tallahassee. Northwestern's record dropped to 14-12.

FSU was led individually by Julie Todd, who hit 38 percent and had 17 kills, and Joan Morris, who had 15 kills.
