FLORIDA STATE VOLLEYBALL DEFEATS NC STATE

RALEIGH, NC -- The Florida State volleyball team rebounded from a four-set loss (15-6, 7-15, 11-15, 8-15) to North Carolina on Friday to take a three-game (15-6, 15-13, 15-13) win over North Carolina State this evening in Atlantic Coast Conference action. With tonight's victory, FSU improves to 12-6 overall and 3-3 in the ACC.

FSU junior middle hitter Aisha Thornton led the way with 19 kills for the Lady Seminoles while sophomore outside hitter Jennifer Werrick and senior middle hitter Susan Hawks added 14 kills apiece.

Florida State's next competition will be a nonconference battle with cross-town rival Florida A&M on Monday at 7 p.m. in Tully Gymnasium.

"We're obviously pleased to be able to bounce back from Friday's disappointing loss and win decisively over NC State," FSU Head Coach Dr. Cecile Reynaud said. "We are looking forward to getting back to Tully Gym for three matches this week, beginning with FAMU on Monday and Virginia and Maryland coming up this weekend."
