FLORIDA STATE VOLLEYBALL FALLS TO NORTH CAROLINA Jennifer Werrick leads team with nine kills and nine digs

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -- The Florida State volleyball team fell to ACC leader North Carolina in three games this evening at Tully Gymnasium. The Tar Heels improved to a perfect 8-0 in conference play and 16-3 overall with the 15-5, 15-8, 15-8 victory. The Lady Seminoles fell to 6-13 overall and 0-7 in the league.

FSU fell behind 1-7 early in game one and never recovered. The Lady Seminoles fought hard for every point they scored and sent the game to four game-points before the Tar Heels prevailed 15-5. In games two and three, Florida State jumped ahead, but in both contests. UNC came back to tie and go on scoring streaks to take commanding leads. Down 3-7 in the final game, Florida State came to within a point at 8-9, but the Lady Seminoles would not score again.

"North Carolina did a nice job in serving tonight," FSU Head Coach Dr. Cecile Reynaud said. "And those who normally pass well or us didn't.

"Our ball control and communication on the court were very poor and that's not going to win matches. We just need to regroup and come back strong for NC State on Sunday."

Junior Jennifer Werrick led Florida State with nine kills and nine digs. The Tribe was plagued by 10 service errors. North Carolina's Casey Simpson led the way for the Tar Heels with 14 kills on her way to a .419 hitting performance. UNC outhit FSU .286 to .117.

FSU will host NC State on Sunday at 1 p.m. at Tully Gym.
